

Name:

PCEP September 9th and 23rd
Refusal of Patient Care
Lynn Wittwer, MD

1. What is the basic difference between the terms Competence and Capacity as they relate to an individual's decision making ability?
2. To assess an individual's ability to make decisions, the health care provider must determine the individual has an absence of deficits in the following areas:
3. (TRUE – FALSE) In the case of Lane v. Candura, the Court ruled the patient CAN refuse treatment despite physician advice and that the apparent irrationality of the decision does not justify a conclusion of incompetence.
4. What are the four elements of informed consent?
5. Define the following:
 - a. False Imprisonment:
 - b. Reasonable Force
6. Per Clark County Prehospital Care Protocols, which refusal criteria necessitate consultation with Medical Control?
7. After confirming a valid EMS No-CPR, the Prehospital provider should adhere to the following:
 - a.
 - b.
 - c.